Attendance	99%	Congratulations for the effort and commitment shown in the high class attendance. Practice time during each lesson is invaluable to the success of a language acquisition program.
------------	-----	--

Performance	93%
-------------	-----

Comprehension	97%	The student fully understands material read and heard in class and answers questions effortlessly, requests clarification comfortably and is able to quickly respond to the interaction with native speakers at this level.
---------------	-----	---

Fluency	92%	The student speaks very well and at a normal and natural pace, with very few stops or pauses which do not interfere with communication. He/she is able to discuss many topics, facilitate conversations. It is clear that he/she thinks in the target language and rarely translates.
---------	-----	---

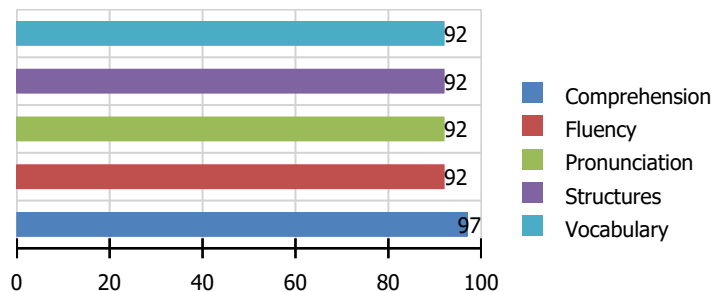

Pronunciation	92%	The student's sound discrimination and production of target sounds are correct. Stress patterns, rhythm and intonation are accurate with very few mistakes, only noticeable by the native speaker. Inflections and expressions are accurately used to enhance communication most of the time.
---------------	-----	---

Structures	92%	The student's grammar in prepared and natural speech is accurate most of the time. The student is able to self-correct in prepared speech. In natural speech, the student focuses more on the message than the grammar; however this does not affect communication. Simple structures are correct but he/she may have more difficulty with more complex structures.
------------	-----	---

Vocabulary	92%	The student has a very good command of the vocabulary covered in class and uses a wide range of words and expressions appropriate for the level and is able to adequately communicate ideas. He/she works at increasing his/her vocabulary. There are few mistakes in word choice and order, that are only noticed by a trained listener.
